IFLA Satellite Meeting 2008 – Navigating with youth Newsletter N°5, June 2008

Navigating with youth: In these days of technology, how can public libraries attract and keep their young clientele?

The satellite meeting will be held at McGill University on August 5th and 6th, 2008, in Montréal, Quebec, Canada, with the support of the School of Information Studies.

An Exceptional Conference!

Throughout this conference, you will hear and see:

- Twenty bold and creative speakers from eight countries, including Denmark, France, Iran, United Kingdom, Canada, USA, Germany and Singapore!
- Prestigious guests including Charles E. Caouette, a highly sought-after speaker devoted to improving the quality of life in educational institutions, and Patricia Aldana, President of the International Board on Books for Young People (IBBY) and founder of the Groundwood Books publishing house, dedicated to literature for young people;
- A breathtaking Cultural Evening will feature the TD Canadian Children's Literature Award 2008 Finalists Announcement, during which a group of contemporary circus artists, Les 7 doigts de la main, will present some extraordinary numbers.

You will enjoy:

- Unique menus, concocted to satisfy the more gourmand conference attendees;
- A festive cocktail hour featuring some of Québec's artisanal beers and cheeses;
- A few original and tasty morsels during the Cultural Evening.

Several other discoveries will be scheduled during the IFLA Satellite Meeting Navigating with youth, to be held on August 5 and 6.
